If something moved quickly from place to place without stopping for long, it flitted.

When a plant doesn't get enough water, its leaves start to droop because they are wilting.

When someone is in a trance, he or she seems to be asleep, but his or her eyes are open.

If something is swirling, it is moving round and round quickly.

When you make a drawing that looks a lot like someone, it is a good semblance of that person.

When you follow the same route to school or to the store every day, you are going the same way each time.

If you improvise a song or a story, then you make it up as you sing the song or tell the story.

When someone is distraught, that person is very, very unhappy.
